

All you need is love? Reflecting on relationships in the care system

Tuesday 26th November | 09:00-16:30 | Village Hotel, Swansea

9:00-9:30	Registration and refreshments
9:30-9:45	Opening address and welcome	Chris Dunn, Voices From Care Cymru
9:45-10:45	Understanding what makes life good for children in care and care leavers – building relationships and a sense of belonging	Linda Briheim-Crookall, Coram Voice
10:45-11:45	Nurturing nature: resilience and the developing brain	Michael Arribas-Ayllon, Cardiff University
11:45-12:00	Coffee break & exhibition
12:00-13:00	Workshops: Gwella – building better relationships through a therapeutic approach (Energy syndicate room) Kinship care: Maintaining and strengthening family relationships for children (Spirit syndicate room) What's love got to do with it? A young person's perspective (Diversity syndicate room)	Rebecca Jones & Bryn Morgan, Barnardo's Cymru Lorna Stabler, CASCADE Voices From Care & Rachael Vaughan, CASCADE
13:00-13:50	Lunch
13:50-14:50	Someone who is there for me: Relationships that work for young people in care	Gloria Kirwan, Maynooth University
14:50-15:10	Coffee break & exhibition
15:10-16:10	Scotland's Independent Care Review and love	Joanna McCreadie, Seamab & Rosie Moore, Strathclyde University
16:10-16:30	Summary and close	Chris Dunn, Voices From Care Cymru

ExChange

Adeiladu Gofal Cymdeithaso
Gwell yng Nghymru
Building Better Social Care
in Wales

The venue is fully accessible.

Free parking is available at the Village Hotel on a first come, first serve basis. Additional parking (St. Thomas or SA1 car parks, both pay & display) are approx. 5 minutes walk away.

The First Cymru number 10 bus to Swansea Bay Campus from New Cut Road (7 minutes walk from train station) stops on Fabian Way (Old Police Station stop), approx. five minute walk from The Village Hotel (Langdon Road). Buses every 15 minutes.

Taxis available from train station.

If you require any further information please contact:
contact@ExChangeWales.org 029 2087 0024